From the planet's core, the earth spits up at both Kilauea Volcano, and nearby underwater Loihi Seamount. Kilauea, the most active volcano on earth, has been staging a drama of power and beauty since January 1983. There are so many ways to visit the Big Island's biggest draw "Volcanoes National Park." To enjoy sightseeing, "Volcano National Park Odyssey." For more adventure, there is Kilauea Biking, or try Hiking on both Lava Viewing Adventure & Kilauea Volcano Hike, or if you want to see it all from the air then you can't go past the "Circle of Fire" Helicopter Flightseeing Tour. With the diversity of this island you can explore the fiery volcanoes to the rich tropical valleys, rainforest and waterfalls. Tours to Akaka Falls State National Park: "Nani Mau & Akaka Falls" & "Discover Hilo" where you can also enjoy the sights of Hilo and the Tsunami Museum. Or venture out to Waipi'o Valley, on an ATV, Horseback or on "Waipo'o Valley of the Kinas." Waipi'o Valley is considered to be one of the most beautiful places on earth.
